Fall 2010 Office Hours (Tentative)

Walk-in office hours will be Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10:00 – 11:00 and Mondays and Wednesdays from 2:30 – 3:30 in Spidel 206. If these times do not suit your schedule, then you are welcomed to make an appointment for an alternative time. Typically the worst time to expect my full attention for help is the 15 minutes right before one of my classes begins.

Contact

The preferable way to contact me is through WWC email (username: wantland), and I will also contact you via your WWC email address.

Available Help

Please don’t hesitate to come to office hours or to make an appointment to see me. You are welcomed to “drop in” anytime, bug me in the cafeteria, library, etc. But, please respect that sometimes I might have a prior commitment or I might be busy (even if I don’t look busy). Math tutoring will also be available in Café Spidel (Spidel 209) in the evenings. Important offices where you can find help are the Writing Center and Academic Support Services in the basement of Sunderland and the Counseling Center in the Health Center.

If you have specific physical, psychiatric or learning disabilities and require accommodations, then you must let me know in writing within the first two weeks of class so that your learning needs may be appropriately met. You will need to provide documentation of your disability to Deborah Braden, Educational Access Coordinator, Dodge House, ext. 3791 or dbraden@warren-wilson.edu so that appropriate accommodations can be arranged.

Academic Honesty

I encourage you to study in groups and with peer tutors on the material we cover in this course ... But, all work that you turn in (homework, quizzes, projects, exams, programs, etc) is to be your own. It is not only your responsibility to do your own work, but you must also keep your work to yourself. You should also be aware of Warren Wilson College’s Academic Conduct Policies. If you have any question about what might be inappropriate, then please come ask me before you risk penalty. I will show absolutely no mercy when it comes to academic honesty and integrity. For any assignment/exam in question, at the very least you will receive no credit. For repeated or serious infractions you will receive a failing grade in the course and be reported to the Dean of Students.

Attendance

Attendance is mandatory. There is no such thing as an “excused” absence. If you need to miss class for any reason, then I expect to be contacted in writing (email is acceptable) as soon as possible explaining why you will/did miss class.
